Intro:

C# – A

Verse 1:

C# A

Aimless and bruised

C# A

Too much life slips through my hands

C# A

Scared and confused

C# A

Too much time beyond my grasp

C# A

A thousand times I gave pieces of my heart away

C# A

Knowing I'd have nothing in return

C# A

So now I hide, shivering

C# A

Afraid to let You lead me through that door

Chorus 1:

A B C# E A

Outside, outside, beneath the open sky

A B C# E A

Outside, outside, I can't hide from all the light

A B C# E A

Outside, outside, exposed before Your eyes

B E D# C# B C#

I'm afraid to go outside

Verse 2:

C# A
How can I continue to take then turn away
C# A
From love you set so warmly in the night
C# A
The sun and moon and stars like grace await
C# A
A smiling face who takes the plate of blood and bread

The price was paid, the price was paid

Bridge:

C# A
You won't let my heart hold on to
C# A
Secrets and the darkest parts that
C# A
keep me inside
C# A
With things that I've done lead me

Chorus 2:

A B C# E A
Outside, outside, beneath the open sky
A B C# E A
Outside, outside, I can breathe in all Your light
A B C# E A
Outside, outside, exposed before Your eyes
B C# B E B A
I am free to go outside
